

2018 Annual Paper Development Workshop

in Conjunction with University of Johannesburg at Riara University, Nairobi

22-23 May, 2018

The Riara University was born out of a sincere desire to provide a holistic approach in higher education. It is a logical continuation of our commitment, dating back to 1974, to ensure education and development of the whole child, learner and person. Ours is a concept that goes beyond the classroom, syllabus-based learning and reaches out to provide stimulation and motivation for self-development and capacity for life-long education.

University of Johannesburg (UJ) was established in 2005 as an international University of choice anchored in Africa routes, multicultural and well prepared for its role in actualising the continents development agenda. UJ is diverse, inclusive, transformative with a student population of over 50,000 out of 3,000 are international students from 80 countries making it one of the largest from 26 public universities in South Africa. UJ strongly believes in imagination, conversation, regeneration and ethical foundation, it is with this in kind that UJ and RU have dedicated a two day Paper Development Workshop (PDW) on 22 and 23 May, 2018 at Riara University.
